DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of Group I, Claims 1-9 and 23-34 in Paper No. 4 is acknowledged.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter, which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 1-9 and 23-34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

4. The description of the topography in the claims is confusing; the description does not appear to describe anything remotely related to the structures shown in the figures (1B, 2B). The examiner assumes that these are the structures, which the applicants are attempting to describe. There is no way to read the applicants' description and draw any reasonable structure.

5. The structure appears to be a crinkled film, formed when the ionic coating is applied to the surface of a shrinkable film and the resulting structure is relaxed causing the surface of the film to crinkle. However, none of this information is gleamed from the applicants' description of the film in the claims.

6. Claims 8, 9, 26, 27, 30, 31, 33 and 34 cannot be a "composition": A composition lacks physical structure, and is merely a list of ingredients in a mixture.

Art Unit: 1773

7. While no prior art has been applied at this time, this should not be taken as an indication of allowable subject matter. Currently, the claims are so confusing that the examiner was not able to perform a complete analysis of the prior art.

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The examiner cites related patent documents (Coleman et al: US 20020160367A1, US 20020142306A1, and US 20020160530A1).
